

2020 CSCTFL Extension Workshop Program

This program selects participants to attend the featured conference workshop at CSCTFL. Participants then conduct a related workshop in their local area. The program seeks to improve the quality of language instruction throughout the CSCTFL region by “sharing up-to-date information with teachers who were unable to attend and thus extending” the convention experience.

Recipes for Success: Intentional Activities to Turn Novices into Intermediates

Thursday, March 12, 2020

Hyatt Regency Hotel, Minneapolis, MN 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Workshop leader Linda Egnatz, Global Seal of Biliteracy Executive Director and 2014 ACTFL National Language Teacher of the Year

You will learn a step-by-step recipe to motivate and support learners as they move to higher levels of proficiency, to engage them by connecting their interests to tangible can-do and standards-based goals and grading, and to increase motivation and excitement. You will also discover classroom activities and assessments that enable learners to actively take charge of their own developing proficiency.

Benefits to participants

- Learn from a nationally-recognized expert.
- Receive materials and training from the workshop presenter that will enable you to organize, publicize, and present a related workshop in your area.
- Network with other foreign language educators throughout the CSCTFL region.
- Serve as a resource person in your foreign language community.
- Receive reimbursement of the $95 workshop fee plus a $50 honorarium after presenting your workshop and submitting the verification form.

Note: Your 2020 Extension Workshops must be presented (“extended”) and documentation received no later than February 1, 2021. Please contact the executive director [csctfl.exec.director@gmail.com] by January 1, 2021 if this is not possible.

Eligibility

- All CSCTFL attendees may apply.
- Participation is limited and priority will be given to applicants who are selected to attend by their state foreign/world language organization.
