

Dr. Katy Arnett is Professor of Educational Studies at St. Mary's College of Maryland. A former high school French teacher, Katy has published on the topic of inclusion in the second/foreign language classroom in peer-reviewed and practitioner-focused journals. In addition, she has traveled all across Canada (and in some parts of the U.S.) to lead workshops and learning days focused on inclusive practice with language learners. She is the author of Languages for All: How to Support and Challenge students in a second language classroom (Pearson Education Canada, 2013), and co-author of Access for success: Making inclusion work for language learners (Pearson Education Canada, 2018).